HAÇIENDA CLASSICAL TO GROOVE INTO DUBAI OPERA

Old school house, club anthems and rave classics to be given a twist during a one-off performance at Dubai Opera

Dubai, United Arab Emirates, 5th April 2018 – Legendary Hacienda DJs, Graeme Park and Mike Pickering will unite with the full symphony orchestra, The Manchester Camerata, conducted by Tim Crooks to recreate some of the world's most well-known and loved house, club and rave classics at Dubai Opera on 22nd November 2018.

The Hacienda nightclub was a renowned venue in Manchester, UK and both Graeme Park and Mike Pickering were the club's original DJ partnership, now the duo offer an unforgettable show, taking smash-hits such as Pacific State, Voodoo Ray, Ride on Time and You've Got The Love and giving them a classical make-over whilst ensuring they retain all their epic character.

Dubai Opera will transform into a full flat floor venue ensure ample room to throw some serious shapes and there will be beverage stations within the auditorium.

Jasper Hope, Chief Executive at Dubai Opera, commented: "For anyone who loves the incredible club anthems of the 1980s, this is going to be the party night of the year, as the music of two legendary Hacienda Club DJs combine with a full live symphony orchestra in the magical surroundings of Dubai Opera."

Tickets start from AED 250 and will be available from 10am on 5 April 2018 at www.dubaiopera.com with a special early-bird discount of 20% on all seating and standing categories available until 19 April 2018.
