Press Release

BRITISH TRIP-HOP ICONS, MORCHEEBA, TO PLAY AT DUBAI OPERA

90s Electronic duo set to perform new and classic material for one night only on 31st October

Dubai, UAE, 10th May 2018: Dubai Opera is delighted to announce that Morcheeba, the British trip-hop duo, will be taking to the stage on Wednesday 31 October for a one-off performance.

Sultry, charismatic vocalist and front woman, Skye Edwards, along with psychedelic guitarist Ross Godfrey, will be treating audiences to a number of their classics, including Part of the Process, The Sea, Love is Rare, Rome Wasn't Built in a Day and many more. The 90s 'it' band will also be debuting new tracks in the UAE from their upcoming album 'Blaze Away'.

Morcheeba is one of the UK's most popular bands from the 90's. They have toured the world for the last two decades and sold millions of albums world-wide. This year, Morcheeba will be stepping into the spotlight once again with their long awaited new album. From headlining festivals in Brazil, to touring theatres in Australia and performing across the globe in Europe, Asia and Africa, the dynamic duo will be stopping off in Dubai, to give UAE residents a night to remember.

The band's ninth album, 'Blaze Away', is the group's first release in over five years, which marks a return to the joyous genre-mashing of their early days. The audience at Dubai Opera can expect a nostalgic evening of extraordinary live music.

Jasper Hope, Chief Executive at Dubai Opera, commented: "No tricks, just a fantastic treat this Halloween at Dubai Opera for fans of this brilliant band."

Tickets will go on sale on Thursday 10th May at 9am, with prices starting at AED 150 at www.dubaiopera.com. There is also an early bird offer of 20% off all seating categories until 24th May, with tickets starting at only AED 120.
