

Guy Manoukian returns to Dubai Opera in November 2019

Featuring His Best Hits with Selected Guest Artists

United Arab Emirates, Dubai, 19 May 2019: Following a hugely successful sold out show in 2018, Lebanese - Armenian musician, composer and pianist Guy Manoukian will return to Dubai Opera this fall with a brand-new show and guest artists on 28 November 2019. The show will feature Manoukian's best-of, in addition to all-time favourites.

Guy Manoukian started playing piano at the age of four. Mentored by the best classical music teachers, he first appeared on television when he was six years old, and was only seven when he performed at the presidential Palace. Manoukian has been a key musical player both locally and internationally over the past 20 years. Not only has he worked with the biggest names in the US, but his fusion of oriental melodies with modern arrangements have made him one of the most sought-after artists today, selling out concerts at the Sydney Opera House, The London Palladium as well as the region's biggest festivals like Beittedine, Byblos, Beit Misk and many more.

Jasper Hope, Dubai Opera Chief Executive, commented: "Guy Manoukian gave one of THE performances of 2018 at Dubai Opera and I am thrilled to be able to welcome back his brilliant musicianship to our stage this November."

Manoukian says: "When I was a child, I was a dreamer and every dream came true not once but a hundred times... coming back to the Dubai Opera is just a proof that if dreams do come true."
